LEATHER WALL

Analu presents from Studioart a variety of solutions from its exclusive Leatherwall collection: new patterns, textures and embossing options: trapezia and rectangles, combined together in a refined stylistic and chromatic matches that are the protagonists of a new way of conceiving interior design and architecture. An entirely Italian production that uses only high quality leathers from the Montebello Tannery in Italy, who has been the main partner of the most prestigious fashion and furniture brands for over 40 years.
